

Music for Awhile

23RD SUMMER FESTIVAL

7 & 8 July 2018

All Saints, Alton Priors

Saturday 7 July, 7pm · All Saints, Alton Priors

A HANDEL FEAST

A glorious evening of music by the ever-popular Handel.

Featuring his opera Apollo e Daphne, a touching tale of love and loss with wonderful music, sung by Milly

Forrest (soprano) and Adam Maxey (baritone) with the MFA ensemble. The programme will also include a concerto, a trio, and other arias. Our festival will begin with a musical entrance – The Arrival of the Queen of Sheba.

Sunday 8 July, 4pm · All Saints, Alton Priors

BACH IN THE AFTERNOON

Lutheran Mass in A BWV 234

Orchestral suite no. 1 B minor

Solo dances for flute, cello and violin

We continue our series of performances of the Lutheran Masses (written for special Feast days in the church's calendar), with the much-loved flute suite and other solos that will reveal the glories of the acoustics in this special church.

Bach and Family

Music by J. S. Bach & other musical Bachs

At the heart of this concert is J. S. Bach's celebratory wedding cantata for solo soprano and instrumentalists, O holder Tag.

The programme also includes an orchestral suite of dances with an intriguing history, an arrangement of a gamba sonata for viola and harpsichord, solos for flute and cello, and a world première of an arrangement of an organ trio by MFA's Artistic Director, Margaret Faultless

SOLOISTS

Rowan Pierce – soprano Emma Halnan – flute
Amy Roberts – oboe Maggie Faultless – violin
Rachel Stroud – violin James Orrell – viola
Catherine Rimer – cello James Johnstone – harpsichord
